

Peter Turner
President
Airlines & Fleets

Peter Turner was appointed President, Airlines & Fleets in 2017. As the leader of StandardAero's largest business sector, Turner is responsible for the operational and financial performance of the three business units comprising the Airlines & Fleets Sector. He reports directly to the CEO of StandardAero and is a member of the company's Executive Leadership Team.

Turner has nearly 30 years of experience working in the aerospace and commercial aviation industry. Prior to joining StandardAero, he served as Executive Vice President of Customer Support and Services for Mitsubishi Aircraft Corporation. Before that, he worked at Delta TechOps in the role of Vice President, MRO Services and Business Development where he was responsible for all aspects of in-sourcing MRO work. From 1988 to 2012, Turner served in a wide variety of increasingly responsible executive leadership roles for Rolls-Royce and International Aero Engines (a joint venture company originally formulated with Pratt & Whitney, Japanese Aero Engine Corporation and MTU Aero Engines) including Vice President for Customer Business Airlines Americas, Vice President of Marketing and Business Development and Director of Corporate Customer Services and Aftermarket in the U.K, U.S. and Canada.

Turner holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Physics and Management Science from the University of Kent, United Kingdom.

StandardAero is one of the world's largest independent providers of services, including engine and airframe maintenance, repair and overhaul, engine component repair, engineering services, interior completions and paint applications. The company is a global enterprise that employs nearly 4,000 employees worldwide with annual revenues exceeding $1.8 billion. StandardAero serves a diverse array of customers in business and general aviation, airline, military, helicopter, components, energy and VIP completions markets. The company celebrated its 100th year of industry leadership in 2011. StandardAero is owned by and partnered with Veritas Capital, a leading private equity firm headquartered in New York City.
