

Tony Brancato

President - Business Aviation

Tony Brancato serves as President, Business Aviation. He is responsible for leading the achievement of performance objectives, customer satisfaction and business development activities of the Business Aviation Sector, which is dedicated to the maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) of non-commercial, business aviation aircraft. Brancato serves as a member of the company's Executive Leadership Team.

He joined StandardAero in March 2017 and previously served in roles as President, Associated Air Center (AAC) and as Senior Vice President, Business Integration, following the company's acquisition of Vector Aerospace. Brancato has more than three decades of aerospace industry experience, most recently working at Walbro, LLC, a Carlyle portfolio company. Prior to that, he held executive roles with Honeywell Aerospace, including VP of Global Business Aviation Aftermarket which generated more than $1.4B in revenue and managed a network of 300 service centers. He also served as President of Honeywell's Federal Manufacturing & Technologies, a 2,700 person high security operation for the U.S. DOE. Prior to Honeywell, Brancato worked in leadership positions at Textron Lycoming and Rockwell International.

He holds an Associate of Science degree in Engineering and FAA Airframe & Powerplant Certificate from Long Beach City College of California. He also holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Management from the University of Phoenix and an MBA from University of New Haven. In addition, Brancato has completed Honeywell's Executive Development Program and is a Six Sigma certified Black Belt.

StandardAero is one of the world's largest independent providers of services including engine and airframe maintenance, repair and overhaul, engine component repair, engineering services, interior completions and paint applications. StandardAero serves a diverse array of customers in business and general aviation, airline, military, helicopter, components and energy markets. StandardAero is owned by The Carlyle Group (NASDAQ: CG), a global investment firm with deep industry expertise that deploys private capital across four business segments: Corporate Private Equity, Real Assets, Global Credit and Investment Solutions. With $224 billion of assets under management as of December 31, 2019, Carlyle's purpose is to invest wisely and create value on behalf of its investors, portfolio companies and the communities in which we live and invest.
