David L. Squier Operating Executive Carlyle – USA

David L. Squier is an Operating Executive focused on the aerospace, defense, and government services sectors for Carlyle.

Squier was formerly President and Chief Executive Officer of Howmet Corporation, a post he held from 1992 to 2000. As Chief Executive Officer, he was responsible for the operations of an organization with more than $1 billion in annual sales and 29 manufacturing facilities in five countries. He was associated with Howmet in several senior management assignments for over 20 years. He first joined Howmet in 1971 and served as Plant Manager at the company's Casting units in Hampton, VA, and Wichita Falls, TX, before being named Vice President in charge of Howmet's refurbishment activities in 1983. He was named Vice President of Product Support Operations in 1984, Senior Vice President of the Product Support Group in 1985, Executive Vice President in 1988, and Chief Operating Officer in 1991.

Squier holds a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering from Lehigh University and an M.B.A. from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. He serves as a consultant and board of directors member for several Carlyle portfolio companies, including Dynamic Precision Group, Forgital Group, Sequa Corporation, and StandardAero.

StandardAero is one of the world's largest independent providers of services, including engine and airframe maintenance, repair and overhaul, engine component and accessories repair, engineering services, interior completions, and paint applications. StandardAero serves a diverse array of customers in business and general aviation, airline, military, helicopter, components, and energy markets. StandardAero is owned by Carlyle (NASDAQ: C.G.), a global investment firm with deep industry expertise that deploys private capital across four business segments: Corporate Private Equity, Real Assets, Global Credit, and Investment Solutions. Carlyle's purpose is to invest wisely and create value on behalf of our investors, portfolio companies, and the communities in which we live and invest.
