

Dr. Stefan Weingartner
Operating Executive
Carlyle - US Buyout

Dr. Stefan Weingartner is an Operating Executive focused on the aerospace, defense, and government services sectors for Carlyle.

Weingartner has transformed aircraft engine and systems businesses throughout his career into high-performance market leaders. Before his appointment to the Sequa board of directors in 2015, Weingartner was President and CEO of MTU Maintenance, a leadership role he held for eight years. Weingartner was instrumental in leading the organization to profitable growth and other significant business and technical achievements. During his career, he also was a member of the Executive Board of MTU Aero Engines AG, a German DAX-listed company.

Weingartner also held the role of Senior Vice President, Defense Programs at MTU Aero Engines GmbH. Prior to that, he served as Managing Director for MTU Turbomeca Rolls-Royce GmbH. Weingartner previously was President and Managing Director at EADS Japan Co. Ltd. (now Airbus Group) and held leadership roles with other aerospace companies, including Daimler Chrysler Aerospace in Germany and Japan.

Weingartner holds a Master's degree in physics from Munich Technical University, an M.B.A. from Edinburgh Business School, and a Doctorate in Engineering from Munich Technical University. He currently serves on the board of directors of Forgital Group, Sequa Corporation, and StandardAero. He is a past Board member of the German Aerospace Industries Association and the American Chamber of Commerce in Germany.

StandardAero is one of the world's largest independent providers of services, including engine and airframe maintenance, repair and overhaul, engine component and accessories repair, engineering services, interior completions, and paint applications. StandardAero serves a diverse array of customers in business and general aviation, airline, military, helicopter, components, and energy markets. StandardAero is owned by Carlyle (NASDAQ: CG), a global investment firm with deep industry expertise that deploys private capital across four business segments: Corporate Private Equity, Real Assets, Global Credit, and Investment Solutions. Carlyle's purpose is to invest wisely and create value on behalf of our investors, portfolio companies, and the communities in which we live and invest.
