

Paul McElhinney

Chief Executive Officer

Paul McElhinney was appointed Chief Executive Officer in October 2026. Mr. McElhinney has more than 30 years of leadership across the aerospace and industrial industries in executive roles and on various boards, including seven years on the Board of Directors with StandardAero. Most recently, he was a Senior Operating Partner at AE Industrial and served as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of AE Industrial portfolio companies AIM MRO and Moeller Aerospace, and served on the Board of Directors of Columbia Helicopters. He previously served on the Board of Directors of Belcan prior to its sale to Cognizant in 2024, and Kellstrom Aerospace prior to its sale to VSE Corporation in 2024. Before joining AE Industrial in 2018, Mr. McElhinney had a 30-year career with General Electric, where he served as President and CEO of both GE Power Services, a $15 billion power generation aftermarket business, and GE Aviation Services, the global aftermarket division of GE Aviation where he was responsible for more than doubling the backlog of the business to more than $100 billion. He also held General Counsel and Business Development roles at GE Aviation and GE Capital Aviation Services (GECAS). Mr. McElhinney holds an Honors Degree in Law from Trinity College in Dublin, Ireland.
