Industrial Turbine Company (UK) Limited
A Siemens Energy Aeroderivative Gas Turbine Business

This certificate supersedes all previous Repair Vendor authorisation letters/certificates and is subject to the terms on the back hereof.

Industrial Turbine Company (UK) Limited ("ITCL") confirms that the quality assurance controls of StandardAero Component Services, Inc., PAS Technologies, Inc and SAComponent (Ireland) Limited. ("StandardAero") meet the general requirements of ITCL as specified in the Energy Business Quality Requirements (EBQR).

The authorisation scope defined is only valid whilst quality systems authorisation to an appropriate internationally recognised standard is maintained.

StandardAero's attention is drawn to the need for StandardAero to notify Industrial Turbine Company (UK) Limited of management and organisational changes and any change of status of your quality systems approval, in accordance with the EBQR.

Authorisations granted are dependent upon the agreed standards being maintained by StandardAero and may be revoked at any time by Industrial Turbine Company (UK) Limited, without notice and liability. Nothing in this authorisation shall prejudice any rights or remedies available to Industrial Turbine Company (UK) Limited under the terms of the current Repair Vendor Authorisation Agreement bearing the referenced authorisation number.

This certificate shall at all times remain the property of Industrial Turbine Company (UK) Limited.

This certificate must not be used for publicity purposes without the express permission of Industrial Turbine Company (UK) Limited.

Failure to abide by these terms may result in Authorisation being withdrawn.
